WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 12. 1739.

No. 1317.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

From the Camp at Banoffza near the Save, Aug. 18. O.S.

COUNT Wallis arriv'd here Yesterday with the Troops from Sardock, after they had rested the Day before in the Camp at Bellegisch. Soon after his Arrival here Advice came, that in the Morning the Turks attack'd the Fort of Belgrade on the other Side of the Danube a third time, but were vigorously repuls'd, and that 'twas believ'd they had upon this Occasion lost 1000 Men at least besides the Wounded, but the Loss of the Imperialists was very small. Upon this News Count Wallis set out for Belgrade to give some necessary Orders, and after two Hours Stay return'd hither in the Evening.

Notwithstanding the Vigor with which the Enemy were repuls'd Yesterday Morning, they spent the rest of the Day in investing the said Fort, the Preservation of which is of such Importance to Belgrade, that by Order of Count Wallis the Prince of Saxe Hilburghausen sent a Detachment over the Danube last Night to relieve it, and oblige the Enemy to abandon their Undertaking against it. As we heard this Morning a great Firing of Muskets, we imagine the said Detachment has had an Engagement with the Enemy, the rather because this happens to be a Festival of the Turks, which they generally solemnize by some notable Action. We expect an Account of it every Minute. They continue to make such a terrible Fire upon the Bastion of St. Elizabeth, that they have actually made a considerable Breach in it; but if the Turks attempt to storm it, they will be severely gall'd from the Trenches that are cut behind it. The Count de Neuperg continues in the Turks Camp, with the Marquis de Villeneuve the French Ambassador, holding frequent Conferences with the Grand Vizier. And in these Conferences a new Plan of Peace has actually been form'd, which has been sent to Vienna and Constantinople.

Vienna, Aug. 25. O. S. The Court has receiv'd a fresh Courier from the Count de Neuperg, and 'tis since given out, that the said General will conclude a Suspension of Arms with the Grand Vizier, upon certain Conditions. The Marquis de Villeneuve has wrote to the Marquis de Mirepoix, that he hopes still that the Negotiations will have a happy Issue, and that the Preliminaries will shortly be sign'd.

Strange Reports are spread relating to the Count de Neuperg. They say now, that the Grand Vizier keeps him in his Camp by Force; that, indeed, he still pays him great Honours, but that he absolutely hinders him from returning to the Army, and refuses to give his Reasons for a Proceeding so extraordinary. The Thing appears the more surprising, because the Count only went to the Turks Camp at the Entreaty of the Marquis de Villeneuve, who had sent the necessary Passports to him, and assur'd him, that he might repair thither with all Safety, and be free to go back again whenever he pleas'd. They say moreover, that the Count de Gros, and a Secretary, or Interpreter, who accompanied that General, are also oblig'd to stay in the Camp of the Turks; and that in a Conference held t'other Day at the Great Duke of Tuscany's Apartment at Court, upon this Occasion, when the Marquis de Mirepoix, another of the French Ambassadors was present, he was told of the Grand Vizier's Treachery, and desir'd to dispatch a Courier to the Marquis de Villeneuve, with an express Order from the Emperor, to be deliver'd by his Excellency to the Count de Neuperg, enjoining him to quit the Turks Camp forthwith, and return to the Imperial Army. Prince Charles of Lorraine, of whom no mention has been made for some Time, because he was oblig'd to stay at Futack near Peterwaradin, to be cur'd of the Wound he receiv'd at the Action of Crozca, and the Fever into which it threw him, is march'd with the Army towards the Save. The Turks have lately given a remarkable Instance of Severity in the Case of the Scraiskier of Widdin, who, for having attack'd the Imperial Army on the 19th of July last near Panczova, without Orders, is condemn'd to lose his Life, notwithstanding the Services he has perform'd by his Abilities and Bravery.

By an Express from Transilvania we hear, that the Russian Army has pass'd Jassi, the Capital of Moldavia, and that Prince Lobkowitz makes long Marches to meet it. As we have certain Advice that Kouli Kan has defeated the Great Mogul, and that he is preparing to return to Persia, we imagine that next Year he will fall upon the Turks.

Vienna, Aug. 25. O. S. Upon the Arrival of the 2 Expresses from Prince Lobkowitz and Belgrade, a Conference was held immediately at the Duke of Tuscany's Apartment, present the Marquis de Mirepoix, Ambassador of France, to consider the Resolutions proper to be form'd at this Juncture for the Emperor's Interest; when they say it was therein resolv'd to hazard another Campaign, rather than to accept the Offers made by the Grand Vizier. 'Tis since publish'd that the chief Motives that induc'd the Members of the said Council to form this Resolution, are, 1. The Scarcity, the Distempers, and the Desertion, that increased every Day among the Turks. 2. The great Progress of the Russian Army, under the Count de Munich in Moldavia. 3. The Hopes that the Republicks of Poland and Venice will join the Emperor, as soon as their Treaties with the Porte expire, which will be next Year. According to the Report of the Express from Belgrade, the Garrison made a Salley on the 17th ult. whereby the Turks, who were at work upon a new Lihe, were forc'd to retire, after which their Works were ruin'd. This, together with their being repuls'd in the Attack they made t'other Day of the Fort on the other Side of the Danube, and the Approach of the Russian Army, have inclin'd the Grand Vizier to abate somewhat of his Pretensions; but they are still of such a Nature as not to be accepted.

Belgrade, Aug. 17. O. S. The Bisha Tosi, who commanded the Turks on the other Side of the Danube, having receiv'd Orders to repair to the Grand Vizier's Camp, the said Prime Minister caus'd him to be beheaded, for having attack'd the Imperial Army near Panczova on the 19th ult. 'Tis a Detachment from the Body that was under his Command, that besieg'd the Fort on the other Side of the Danube, which the Turks batter with Six Pieces of Cannon and Three Mortars, but hitherto without any Success; nor have they had any remarkable Success against Belgrade, tho' they still batter it Day and Night with a numerous Artillery. St. Elizabeth's Bastion is the only Place that has been damag'd, but 'tis almost entirely repair'd. The Turks have made no Approach, and are still 5 or 600 Paces from the Outworks, so that there is no Likelihood that they will attempt to storm them as yet.

Ratisbon, Aug. 30. O. S. Some Advices from Vienna say, that General Succow, the Commandant of Belgrade, has sent Word to the Imperial Court, that let the Turks do what they will, he believes he shall hold out the Town at least till the End of September, and in case it be taken, to defend the Citadel till the New-Year.

Frankfort, Sept. 2. O. S. Just now we hear that Ernest Lewis Landgrave of Hesse-Cassel dy'd last Night, at his Hunting-Seat at Ingersbourg. He was born the 4th of December 1667, and came to the Regency in 1678. Nine Years after he marry'd Dorothea Charlotte, Daughter of the Margrave Albert of Brandenburg-Anspach, who dy'd the 4th of November, 1705. His Son, Prince Lewis, who succeeds him, was born the 25th of March 1691, and in 1717 marry'd Charlotte Christina, the only Daughter of John Reinhard, Count of Hanau, who dy'd the 1st of July, 1726, leaving 3 Princes, and 2 Princesses.

Versailles, Sept. 10. N. S. The King confers two Hours a Day with Cardinal de Fleuri, and there is a great Rumor of certain Measures taken that will soon come to Light. But as every thing is kept such a mighty Secret at Court that 'tis impossible to penetrate into any Particular there transacted, all that is said is mere Guess-work without any Foundation. 'Tis said, that the Count de Cambis, the King's Ambassador at London, has Orders to return from thence presently, if the Language of the Court of Great Britain to him be in the same Style as the Answer of the Earl of Waldegrave, the British Ambassador, was to M. Amelot, viz. 'That as his Majesty had made all the Proposals that could in Reason be expected from him, to engage this Court to embrace a Neutrality in case of a Rupture with Spain, he was prepared for all Events, &c.

Hamburg, August 31. O. S. Letters from Stockholm say, that by Order of the Court a Painter is arrested there, who, 'tis said, was concern'd in drawing the Picture of Major Sinclair, before he went to Constantinople; and that two other Persons are apprehended on the same Account.

HOME PORTS.

Deal, Sept. 10. Wind S. by E. The Wind having been Northerly, this Morning a great many of the outward-bound Ships are fail'd, but believe must put back again. The Men of War, and Ships under Convoy, remain. Came down and remain, the Plymouth Transport, Bristow, for Plymouth; and the Providence, Stewart, for Ireland. Came down and sail'd thro', the Oswego, Langdon, for New York. Arrived the Penelope, Barrett, from Antigua; and the Duke of Lorraine, Phillips, from Gallipoly.

Gravesend, Sept. 10. Pass'd by the London Packet, Channon; the Duke De Humier, Judgson; both from Boulogne; and the Charming Betty, Bruce, from Calais.

Arrived at several Ports.

In Portland Road, the Amy, Newham, from Virginia.

At Dover, the Sarah, Green, from Barbados; and the Eleanor, Dunavan, from Oporto.

LONDON.

From the London Gazette.

Petersburgh, August 18. The Russian Fleet commanded by Rear Admiral O Brian, consisting of Seven Men of War, is sail'd from Cronstadt in order to exercise the Seamen. This Week Prince Dolgorucki, who was formerly nam'd to go to England, was sent back into Banishment.

Vienna, Sept. 8. This Day an Effaette from Prince Lobkowitz brought Letters from a German Colonel in the Russian Army, with Advice of the Surrender of Choczim: He says Count Munich had attack'd the Turkish Army near that Town, and with the Loss of 60 Men only, had kill'd some Hundreds of the Enemy, and put the rest to Flight; whereupon he summon'd the Town, which surrender'd at Discretion. In the Battle he took 19 Pieces of Cannon.

Vienna, Sept. 9. Our last Advices from Belgrade are of the 29th of August. The Safety of our Navigation on the Danube diminishes daily, for the Turks put out with their small Vessels from the Borza, and slipping by our large Ships and Vessels, take all the little ones they meet. The Breach which the Enemy are making in the Bastion of St. Elizabeth, begins to be considerable, so that it costs a great deal of Labour and Trouble to repair it tolerably from time to time. The Enemy have made another Breach in the Bastion of St. Francisco, and tho' they make no great Progress in it, they are continually firing upon it. We have Intelligence that the Turks are making all necessary Dispositions for passing the Save at Dragolofski, having got together a good Number of Boats there; and 'tis the more suspected they design to attempt that Passage, because they have cut the Banks of the River on their Side to draw off Part of the Water.

They write from Toulon, that 12 Men of War are fitting out there with all Diligence.

On Monday Night last we had one of the most violent Storms of Thunder and Lightning, accompanied with an excessive Rain, that perhaps has been known in this Part of the World.

It came from the West-South-West, and began about 7 o'Clock in the Evening, and the Flashes of Lightning continued till almost 12 at Night. 'Tis fear'd we shall hear of many dreadful Effects of it.

Yesterday the Wind being excessive high did considerable Damage, several Boats were overfet in the Thames, by which several Persons were drown'd, and the Tiles were blown from the Houses, which made it dangerous to walk the Streets. A Bricklayer's Labourer being at Work at the Corner of Beaufort's Buildings, in the Strand where the late Fire happen'd, some Bricks fell off the House, one of which cut him on the Head into the Skull, that he dy'd on the spot.

Spot; he was afterwards carry'd to St. Clement's Bone-house, in order for the Coroner's Inquest to sit on him.

Last Night about 9 o'Clock the Wind rose higher than it had been all the Day before; between 11 and 12 it blew a most prodigious Storm, which continu'd till Morning.

We are well assur'd, that a Proclamation will be speedily issued out for calling the Parliament to meet and sit for the Dispatch of Business on Thursday the 15th of November next.

Last Week Nathaniel Garland, Esq; was unanimously chosen Master of the Mercers Company, and Sir Jasper Cullum, Barr Head Warden.

The first of these Gentlemen fin'd for Sheriff of London in the Year 1734.

Monday Night last died in an advanc'd Age, after a few Days Illness, at his House in Austin Friars, the Rev. Mr. Bolten, who had been Minister of the Dutch Church in that Place upwards of 39 Years, and Chaplain to the late King William III. of immortal Memory. He was a Gentleman of great Humanity, and a sincere Friend to the Poor, and his Death is greatly lamented by all his Acquaintance.

His Majesty's Ship the Tyger is order'd to Gibraltar, with Orders to General Sabine the Governor, and likewise to Rear-Admiral Haddock.

Three Regiments of Marines will be raised against the Spring.

Last Monday Capt. Lieutenant Lampton kill'd his Majesty's Hand, on his being appointed Colonel of a Company in the Second Regiment of Foot-Guards, commanded by the Right Hon. the Earl of Scarborough, in the room of Col. Chudleigh, deceased.

As did also Lieutenant Lethicullier, on his being appointed Captain-Lieutenant of the Earl of Scarborough's own Company, in the room of Col. Lampton.

The Right Hon. the Earl of Crawford, who was shot thro' the Body a little above his Right Hip with a Musket Ball, in the late Battle of Krotzka against the Turks, was so well recovered of his Wound, that he intended to set out from Belgrade, on the First of this Instant O. S. on his Return to England.

The Six Malefactors lately condemn'd at Kingston in Surrey, are to be executed on Friday next at Kennington-Common.

We hear that Lieutenant-General Evans is made General of Foot, in the room of the Right Hon. Sir Charles Wills, who is made Field-Marshal.

And that Lieutenant-General Preston is made General of Horse, in the room of General Evans.

Last Friday at the Horse Races at Lincoln, the Ladies Plate of 90 l. was won by Mr. Pearson's Black Mare Selma.

The uncommon Success, near Forty Years last past, of the so much famed and only true Original

ROYAL CHYMICAL WASH-BALL,
FOR beautifying the Face, Neck and Hands; hath induced many Envious Persons, not only in every Part of London, but in many Places in the County to sell a Counterfeit White Ball (which may prove prejudicial as well as ineffectual) in Imitation of the true one.

To prevent as much as possible any Mistakes in Purchasing our Customers, we give this special Notice, That the True Sort are now sold only at Mrs. King's Toyshop, the Wine and Boy, against the Cross-Keys Tavern in Cornhill; and at Mrs. Giles's, a Milliner, at the Blue Ball near the Inner Temple Gate in Fleet-street. Price 1s. each Ball, or 12 to the Dozen, but no Allowance for less than 12 Balls at a Time, nor will they ever be sold any where else, except Notice be first given in these Advertisements of it.

Their true and real Virtues have been sufficiently attested in all the Years that they have been Sold by Publication, and the more so, as they are still more than ever used and admired by both Sexes of the best Quality, and many Thousands of Gayety, and others, for making the Skin so delicately soft and smooth, as not to be paralleled by any Wash or Wash-ball, &c. of any Kind or Form; for these Balls are indeed real Beautifiers of the Skin, by taking off all Deformities, as Tetter, Ringworms, Morpew, Sunburn, Scurf, Pimples, Pits, or Redness of the Face, Small-Pox, and keeping it of a lasting and extreme Whiteness, they soon alter red or rough Hands; are admirable in shaving the Head, not only giving a most exquisite Sharpness to the Razor, but to comfort the Brain and Nerves, as to prevent catching Cold. They are of a grateful and pleasant Smell, without the least Grain of Mercury, and may be used in their Safety.
